Compact and powerful: the new FEIN WPO 14 angle polisher

Benefits of the range

The new FEIN angle polishers in the WPO 14 range deliver impressive results to vehicle refurbishing and the automotive industry. The compact power packs are just as good at polishing vehicle surfaces as refurbishing painted surfaces.

Robust metal gearbox with double reduction

► Designed for continuous use

Durable, even when under permanent load, due to robust metal gearbox and enduring HIGH POWER MOTOR.

► Speed stability

Speed remains stable even at high loads thanks to double reduction.

► Compact design

High-performance with an extremely small design.

► Optimum speed adjustment

The new switch arrangement enables optimum speed adjustment in all operating conditions.

For first-class results: the new FEIN WPO 14 family
